Good morning,

BGR Group represents the Kingdom of Bahrain's Embassy to the United States of America. Yesterday, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Linda Thomas-Greenfield met with the Ambassadors of the UAE, Morocco, and Bahrain to celebrate the one-year anniversary of the signing of the historic Abraham Accords, which normalized relations with Israel. Since signing the Accords at the White House, Bahrain has taken a series of concrete steps to recognize Israel and deepen multilateral cooperation in the region.

Ambassador Thomas-Greenfield highlighted Bahrain's appointment of their first Ambassador to Israel, as well as their observation of Holocaust Remembrance Day, calling it "real progress toward a more peaceful region." She thanked the Ambassadors for choosing the path toward peace.

We would appreciate a statement from your boss recognizing the one-year anniversary of the Abraham Accords and Bahrain's historic normalization of relations with Israel.

Please let me know if you have questions, or if you would like to speak further with the Embassy of Bahrain about their recognition of Israel and their commitment to greater cooperation and stability in the region.

Thanks,
Mark
